

THE NEWS FROM THE CITY, NATION AND WAR AREA SEEN THROUGH THE CAMERA LENS

WILL DISTRIBUTE AMERICA'S GIFTS TO WAR CHILDREN
The Princess Victoria Alexandra Mary has sent her thanks to the children of the United States for their presents to England's orphans. She is the only daughter of King George.

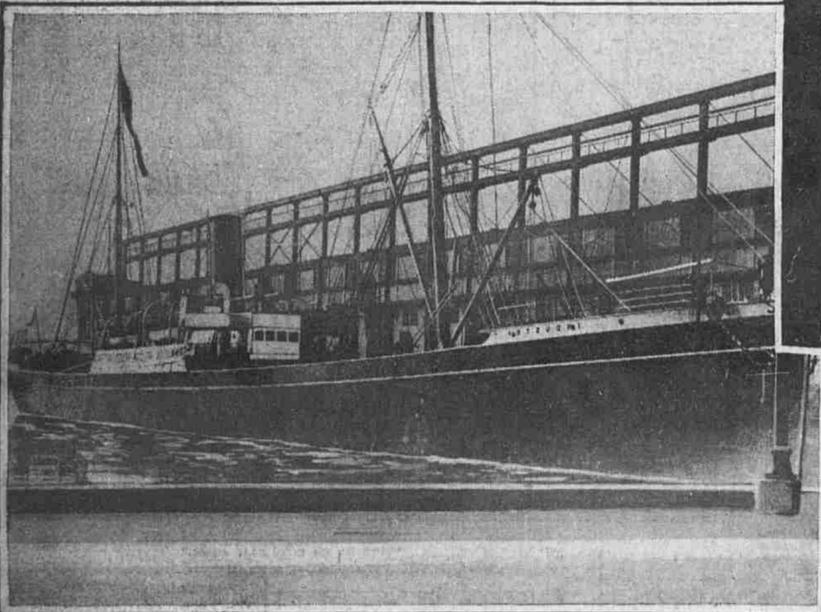

RUSH OF CHILDREN TO ENTERTAINMENT OF WOMEN OF GERMAN SOCIETY
Several hundred children responded eagerly yesterday when the Ladies' Auxiliary of the German Society gave its Donation Day entertainment at Marshall and Spring Garden streets. Baskets of food and clothing were among the gifts welcomed, besides candy and other appetizing things.

CAPT. H. McKEGG
Of the steamship industry, who expects to reach Rotterdam in 18 days.

THEY ARE ALL CHILD ACTORS YOU'VE SEEN ON THE MOVIE FILMS
The baby stars of the Lubin Film Manufacturing Company are shown here partaking of a spread provided by a thoughtful management. Virtually all were born and bred in the Quaker City

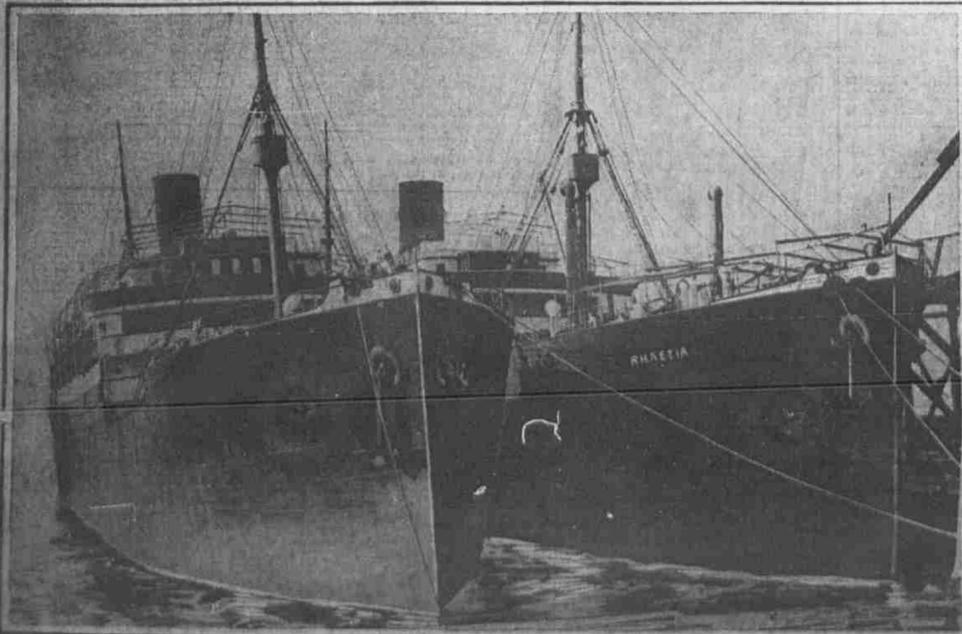

FIFTH BELGIAN RELIEF SHIP FROM THIS PORT
The British steamship industry, known as the "Pennsylvania State Ship," because most of her cargo consists of contributions from the State at large, probably will sail today.

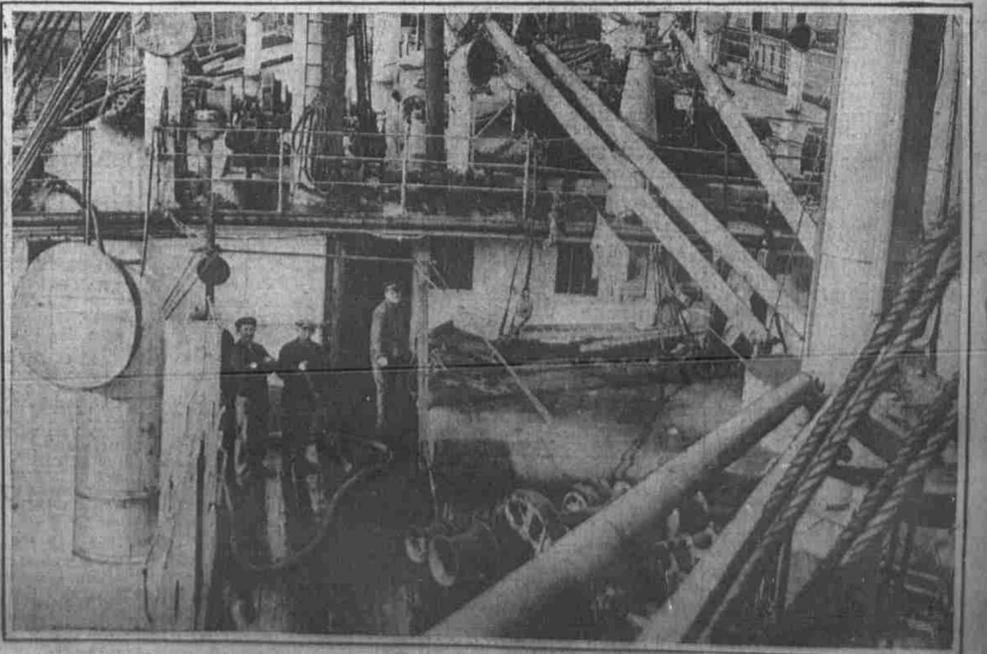

WILL BE NEW YORK'S NEW DISTRICT ATTORNEY
Charles A. Perkins has been selected by Governor-elect Whitman to succeed Mr. Whitman himself in office. He has been a member of Whitman's staff.

LET VOTERS DECIDE ON WAR, HE SAYS
Senator Robert L. Owen, of Oklahoma, proposes a constitutional amendment which would prevent an aggressive war by the United States except on the approval of a majority of the citizens at the ballot box.

TWO BIG GERMAN LINERS INTERNED HERE SINCE WAR BEGAN
The Prinz Oskar and the Rhaetia are lying idle at the foot of Catharine street and probably will stay there for many months more, representing a heavy expense to the Hamburg-American Line. There is seldom a sign of life about them as they lie in limbo state.

SCENE ON DECK OF THE MAROONED RHAETIA
Most of the crew made a mad dash for hiding places with numerous Trautman exclamations as soon as the Evening Ledger photographer poked his camera over the side. They refused to explain why. The principal occupation of the interned men is scrubbing the decks.
